

WERE YOU THERE...

by meredith BUSH

When... friends, family and well wishers gathered at Tilles Park for the third annual 'Hydrocephalus Walk-Wheel-Run and Family Fun Day'. The walk raised more than $30,000 to provide support and research to those living with hydrocephalus, an accumulation of fluid in the brain that requires surgery.

When... Chef Jeff Riedel hosted an afternoon of pumpkin carving at L'École Culinaire. Twenty percent of the proceeds went to Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Pictured: Chef Riedel and pumpkin carvers Carly Weatherford and Zack Morrison

When... Metro Design Studio Salons sponsored a month-long 'Suit Drive' event to benefit Dress For Success Midwest. The organization serves women dealing with domestic violence, homelessness and other hardships.
